For Sale.
THE subscriber offers for sale a tract of 80 acres of land, on the Colchester road, five miles from Alexandria, adjoining the lands of Haywood Foote and Dennis Johnston. The greater part of this tract is fine meadow land, abundantly supplied with water. Also one other tract of 261 acres, on the Ravensworth road, about 6 miles from Alexandria, and one mile from the first mentioned tract, adjoining land of Thos. Janney and Mr.
M'Pherson: the greater part of this tract is in wood, the soil good and highly susceptible of improvement from the use of plaster. If these lands are not sold before the first of January next, they will then be for rent.

Gill Nets! Gill Nets!
To the Citizens of Washington, Frederick, and Montgomery counties.

As the General Assembly of Maryland will sit in the course of a few weeks, I take the liberty of calling the attention of the people of the upper counties to the subject of Gill Nets; that all those who may agree with me in opinion, may unite in petitions to the Legislature to pass such laws as may effectually prevent the use of them hereafter in the Potomac.
Since the introduction of these Nets into our waters, the people of the upper counties have experienced the most pernicious effects of this practice. It is a fact well known, that many persons at the last season, after leaving their homes, with their teams, at the most busy season of the year, and travelling, perhaps, from 50 to 100 miles to reach the nearest landings, and after being detained there a considerable time, exposed to the inclemencies of the weather, and often without any shelter but what was afforded to them by the coverings of their waggons, while their crops too were suffering greatly at home, were obliged at last to return without any fish. Some procured their Herrings, but not one in ten could get the Shad they wanted for their families. These Gill Nets, it is said, are fished almost exclusively by persons from the Eastward—a covetous people they must be—they would take the bread from our mouths if they could do it—and they certainly will the fish if left to themselves. It is stated they had 500 vessels engaged in this business during the last season; such a number of Nets will form such an obstruction in the river as to keep back the Shad altogether, and by breaking the schools of Herrings will render even the catching of them uncertain. And what adds to our grievance, the fish that are caught in this manner are not disposed of to our citizens, but are cured on board the vessels that take them, and carried as an article of traffic to some other portions of the Union, or, perhaps, to foreign parts.

The people of the upper counties are peculiarly situated; living remote from any of the Rivers, with which nature has so bountifully watered our state, they have only an opportunity afforded to them once a year of procuring fish of any kind for their families; and it rests with the Legislature to determine whether they shall be deprived of this right, attended as it is too, with great sacrifice, expense and trouble; and it must be known too to the members that may compose that body, that fish, from long use and custom, have become indispensably necessary to our families.

If any doubt should exist as to the facts herein stated, I have only to observe that they will be entirely removed by referring to any one from either of the upper counties, who attended at the landings either of the two last seasons, particularly the last.
Having said much more than I intended, I have only to call upon all those who feel an interest in this business, to lose no time in getting signatures to such a petition as I have recommended—and also to see and converse upon the subject with such persons as they may think proper to send as delegates to the next General Assembly; and I have also to request the favor of the editors of the Fredericktown papers, to give these remarks a place in their respective papers, that the subject may be fully brought before the people of the upper counties.

Exchange & Broker's Office,
Georgetown, District of Columbia.

ROMULUS RIGGS,
At his office, next door below Craw-ford's tavern, Bridge-st. Georgetown, will exchange all kinds of Bank Notes on the most reasonable terms.—All persons who may have notes on the banks of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, would do well to call on him, as he is largely in the purchase of that kind of money, and will take it on the most reasonable terms.—Persons travelling to the Western Country may at all times get the Bank Notes of the Western Banks at a fair discount, by calling at his Office. For the information of all persons throughout the U.
States, R. Riggs makes it known, that all of the Banks of the District of Columbia pay their notes on demand in specie; and it would be much to the advantage of the merchants, and trading to the South and west, to encourage the circulation of the Notes of the Banks of Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria, as it will at all times answer for remittances to the large commercial and Atlantic towns—all persons emigrating or travelling to the westward should be very particular and take the Notes of the Banks of the District of Columbia, as they will find them the most current, there being no counterfeits on the District Banks. The Merchants' Bank of Alexandria has long since failed—all persons should be on their guard, as they will be imposed on. August 18 months gone in a state of pregnancy—followed her husband, Jim Clark, a yellow man, who was purchased from this place and taken away in company with a large number of slaves, about two weeks ago, by a man of the name of Bassett. It is supposed they have gone to the westward; Celia was born free, and had with her a notarial certificate of her freedom, and description of her person. Her mother, the subscriber, is much afflicted by her manner of going away, and desires that any humane people who may chance to meet with her, will persuade her to return, being apprehensive that when she gets into a strange country, where she will be unknown and out of the reach of her friends and those who would be likely to protect her, attempts may be made by some avaricious and unprincipled persons, to deprive her of her liberty, and sell her for a slave. Should any such attempts be made, fifty dollars reward will be paid to any person who will communi-conviction of the offenders, and the recovery of the woman.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1818.

[Those of our readers who heard the very eloquent sermon at the Methodist meeting-house on Sunday night last, from the text contained below, cannot fail of duly appreciating the beauty of the following lines, by SAMUEL WOODWORTH, of New-York; a gentleman as distinguished for his piety as for his poetical abilities.]

OPEN THE DOOR.

That God who calls the human mind A temple for himself designed;
A house upon a rock—Assures us he will patient wait In mercy, at the mental gate, And for admittance knock.

Who hears the gracious call within,
And draws the iron bolts of sin,
Which barricade the door,
Will banquet with a guest divine, On life imparting food and wine, From Love's exhaustless store.

Come, then, dear Saviour—be my guest, Knock louder at this flinty breast,
And rouse me with thy voice; Then will I struggle to remove The sins which now obstruct thy love,
And in that love rejoice.

Thou wilt not let me strive in vain—
The gates of brass shall burst in twain, The iron bars shall fall; Then will my soul thy temple be,
Where I shall ever feast with Thee, My God, my life, my all.

*Behold! I stand at the door and knock:
If any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him and will sup with him, and he with me.—Rev. iii. 20.

From Phillips's Recollections of Curran.
Mr. Phillips, the celebrated Irish barrister, has published a memoir of John P. Curran, from which the following trifles are selected.

"At a time when called before the college board for wearing a dirty shirt—

"I pleaded," said Curran, "inability to wear a clean one, and I told them the story of poor Lord Avonmore, who was at that time the plain, untitled, struggling Barry Yelverton. 'I wish, mother,' said Barry, 'I had eleven shirts.'—'Eleven! Barry, why eleven?'—'Because, mother, I am of opinion, that a gentleman, to be comfortable, ought to have the dozen.' Poor Barry had but one, and I made the precedent my justification."

"In an election for the borough of Tallagh, Egan was an unsuccessful candidate; the, however, appealed from the decision, and the appeal came, of course, before a committee of the house of commons. It was in the heat of a very warm summer—Egan was struggling through the crowd, his handkerchief in one hand, his wig in the other, and his whole countenance raging like the dog-star, when he met Curran—"I'm sorry for you, my dear fellow," said Curran—"Sorry! why so Jack—why so? I'm perfectly at my ease."—"Alas, Egan, it's but too visible to every one that you're losing Tallagh (Tallagh) fast."

"One day when it was known that Curran was to make an elaborate argument in chancery, lord Clare brought a large Newfoundland dog upon the bench with him, and during the progress of his argument, he lent his ear much more to the dog than to the barrister. This was observed at length by the whole profession—in time the chancellor lost all regard for decency—he turned himself quite aside in the most material part of the case, and began in full court, to fondle the animal—Curran stopped at once. "Go on, Mr. Curran," said lord Clare, who certainly had much of the coxcomb in his manner. "O! I beg a thousand pardons, my lord—I really took it for granted that your lordship was employed in consultation."

"An Irish gentleman, who certainly preserved most patriotically all the richness of his original pronunciation, had visited Cheltenham, and during his stay there, acquired a most extraordinary habit of perpetually lolling his tongue out of his mouth! "What can be mean by it?" said somebody to Curran—"Mean by it," said Curran, "why, he means, if he can, to catch the English accent."

WESTERN BANKS.

Extract of a letter to the editor of the Baltimore Patriot, dated Cincinnati, Ohio, Nov. 9.

"I am sorry to state to you, that the banks of this state have come to a resolution not to pay specie for their notes; and I apprehend the same step will be taken in Kentucky and elsewhere. What the result will be I know not, but fear it will be greatly to the disadvantage of merchants, as well as those who have money to pay into the land offices."

Capt. Matthieu, of the ship Dido, arrived here this morning, in 38 days from Havre, informs that the Congress had met at Aix-la-Chapelle, and agreed for an immediate withdrawal of their troops from France. [Philad. Reg. Nov. 21.]

From the Baltimore Gazette, November 21.
It was stated yesterday that a deep laid scheme of fraud had been detected in this city and some of the parties concerned in it imprisoned. As the subject is now before the grand jury it is not thought advisable to make a full statement of the circumstances until the investigation shall be completed.

So far we can at present state, that the forgery of a number of checks on different banks in this city, has been traced to the above mentioned association, which has existed in this city for more than a year.—We congratulate our fellow citizens on the certainty of having this nest of villains exposed and punished.

Among the persons arrested and now in confinement, charged with being concerned, and probably the principal in the above scheme to defraud, is George Howell, who has passed here by the designation of Doctor Howell; he is stated to be a man of extensive acquirements and polished manners; and, report says that he was some years ago in the penitentiary in New-York as a punishment for a similar offence.

This Doctor Howell, was, a short time since, employed in soliciting charitable donations, as he stated, for the use of an unfortunate and distressed French family, and succeeded in obtaining the signatures of a number of respectable citizens, as donors, on a paper which he carried about containing a pathetic representation of the distress and misfortunes of this pretended family, which it is now known did not exist. The use which such a man might make of the names thus obtained, is obvious; and we take this opportunity of cautioning our fellow citizens against signing their names without due precaution, on similar occasions.

Among the articles found in the possession of Doctor Howell, there were a number of blank commissions, similar to those said to be issued by Artigas; some copies or fac similes of his name, and a seal with his name (as is supposed) engraved on it.

CURIOUS.

We have been favored with the following extract of a letter from Bermuda.

"Since writing the foregoing, a schooner has arrived from Antigua, which brings Antigua and St. Kitts papers, dated 1st. Sept. in which the act of parliament dated 23d May, 1818, is inserted; the substance of which is as follows:

An act to permit the importation of certain articles into his majesty's colonies and plantations in the U. S. or on the continent of South America, for the supply of the inhabitants thereof in British built ships, owned, registered and navigated according to law, from any colony or possession in the U. S. or on the continent of South America, under the dominion of any foreign European sovereign or state.

"Also from the same paper, Custom House, Antigua, 15th Sept. 1818.
Notice is hereby given, that agreeably to an act passed on the 23d May last, the importation of tobacco, rice, &c. (as set forth in the act.)

(Signed) G. WYKE, Collector.
B. PARKHURST, Comp.

"This law must materially affect the trade of Bermuda, except in the article of lumber, and such other articles as are admitted here and are not enumerated in the act of parliament.
"I have just seen an Antigua price current, stating flour and bread stuffs to be very dull. Flour $10 to 11. Corn 120 to 150. R. O. bid staves are in demand, and there was no doubt it would continue.

"A very destructive hurricane was experienced at the Windward Islands on the 23d September.

ANCIENT AND MODERN GREENLAND.
Before the year 1792, there were ten missionaries in Greenland, but then the number was reduced to six. During the last war all communication was cut off, and at length one missionary alone remained there. The stipend of these good men is very moderate, which must be attributed to the limited resources, rather than to the parsimony of the Danish government; but it is paid to them partly in money and partly in provisions—their fare is coarse and scanty, and they suffer great privations, almost approaching to distress. Saabye has given an unaffected delineation of the feelings of the missionary and his family during the long and lonely Greenland year. They have one bright epoch; for it is a blithe and happy time to them when the ice is loosened from the rocky coast, and they can expect the arrival of the vessel, which alone reaches them in their solitude. Often deceived by the floating iceberg forming itself in mockery into the shape of the friendly visitant; at length they see the white sails and the masts, and now she is riding safe at anchor in the bay. By this vessel their wants are supplied. The active and pious housewife, of whom our missionary always speaks with tranquil affection, busies herself in arranging the stores of the ensuing twelve months. There are letters, too, from friends and relations, and books and newspapers; and banished as they are, they live again in Denmark, in their "father land." These hours of innocent happiness soon glide away; the ship sails, and the missionary and the partner of his toils, remain behind, solitary and forsaken. To this season of bitterness succeeds the gloom of the polar night. A few days before the 25th of November, Saabye used to climb the high rocks, from whence, at noon, he could just see the sun dimly shining, with soft and palid light, and then he sunk, and he bade farewell to the eye of creation with heaviness and grief. A dubious twilight continued till the beginning of December, then darkness ruled. The stream near which Saabye's house was situated, roared beneath the ice; the sea dashed and foamed over the rocks, bursting in foam against his windows; and the dogs filled the air with long continued moans. His journeys at Christmas time were performed by moonlight, or whilst the merry north light danced and streamed in the sky.

About the 12th Jan. the rays of the rising sun glittered on the rocks. He rose bright in radiance, and the world started from its torpor! They also felt a new life within them—they looked forward to spring and summer; and the ship from Denmark. We even seemed to breathe more freely. At Udy, (in Denmark) adds Saabye, we know not how to prize the daily presence of the sun, because we never know his absence. When others complain of the short December days, I think on Greenland, and thank God for the light which he gives us here in December.—At Saabye's settlement, the polar day begins on the 24th May, but it was not till the beginning of July, that the soil of his little garden was sufficiently thawed to enable him to sow it. Great labor had been bestowed in making the ground. The thin layer of earth which covered the rock adjoining his house, was not deep enough for the spade, therefore our pastor and his wife brought good mould every now and then, which they carried in a tub, till they found it was sufficient to allow of vegetation. The details of their horticulture are curious. Cabbages flourished remarkably well, turnips grew to the size of a tea-cup, lost their bitter taste, and acquired an agreeable sweetness; but Saabye's carrots were never larger than the stem of a tobacco pipe. Celery and broad beans would not grow at all; peas ran into bloom but did not set; the barley was killed by the frost. Vegetation was uncommonly rapid.

The Greenlanders believe that a certain Congkak or Conjuror, came to settle at Disco, and not finding a supply of his favorite comfit, he towed the island from the south into its present situation. At the summer solstice, the sun at midnight seemed to be of the same altitude as he is at noon in Denmark in the month of December; and it is a glorious spectacle to follow him in his unwearied course, circling again and again the heavens. The night sun sheds a mild warmth, and yet he shines with a broad unnatural glare; the sky is clear and the air is calm.—On the contrary, when he is at his greatest altitude, fogs envelope the land, the air is sultry, swarming with tormentors of the insect tribes. On the 20th of July, the sun begins to dip below the horizon; at first his setting is scarcely perceptible, but the night frosts soon increase and remind the missionary of the approach of the evening of the year.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENTS, MESSRS. LANG, TURNER & CO.
New-York, Nov. 21—noon.

FROM FRANCE AND ENGLAND.

By the Tybee, Captain Barker, we have received late French papers, and Bell's London Weekly Messenger of the 4th of October.

An important communication had been received in London from Spain; from which it appears, that the Russian interest predominated over the councils of the Spanish cabinet, but by the timely zeal of the English minister there, that interest had been put down; that the Spanish King had dismissed his ministers; and by the advice of the English minister all proscriptions are to cease, and the inquisition is to be limited in its powers.

It is said that the ex-empress Maria Louisa has prevailed on her father the Emperor of Germany to support the proposals which are to be made at the Congress, to remove Napoleon to a climate more congenial to his health.

The extensive Canal Company's warehouse at Nottingham, had been destroyed by the explosion of 21 barrels of gunpowder in a boat. Much damage had also been done to the adjoining wharves and buildings. Twelve dead bodies had been found in the ruins. The warehouse was full of corn and other merchandise.

Alderman Atkins is elected Lord Mayor of London.

A Liverpool paper states, that the celebrated Abraham Thornton had arrived in that town, for the purpose of emigrating to the United States.

At the London Corn Exchange, Oct. 2, fine wheat experienced a dull sale at Monday's prices; red wheat, 63 to 82s; American flour, 48 to 52s.

Maryland yellow tobacco was 17d to 18d; Virginia dry and ordinary, 84 to 94d.

The markets in Havre were rather dull. There was to have been a large public sale of cotton on the 19th of October, which kept the buyers back. Rice was from 55 to 60f.

Captain Barker has brought despatches for government.

Captain Clark, of the ship Albert Gallatin, from Russia, saw at the entrance of the gulf of Finland, the U. S. frigate Guerriere.

Gunston for Sale.
THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Potlick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaster acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain; being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole. It would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary out-house, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all night), have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvas backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Potlick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.
September 4 GEORGE MASON.

Valuable Property for Sale.
THE subscriber is desirous of selling a handsomely situated farm, on Hunting creek, in Fairfax county Virginia, adjoining the Mount Vernon estate and the lands of General Thomson Mason, four miles from Alexandria, containing about 240 acres, 80 of which are in wood—40 to 50 in thriving meadow of clover and timothy—a part of the residue recently seeded with wheat and rye, and clover, last spring—the whole enclosed with a new post and rail fence.—The improvements are, a comfortable and convenient frame dwelling house and kitchen, smoke house, poultry house, granary and stables.—There is on this place a rich and productive garden, and a large body of marsh meadow from which may be saved annually 100 tons of hay, nearly as nutritious as the best timothy or clover.—With the farm would be sold a number of very valuable horses, cows and sheep; waggon, carts, and a variety of farming utensils and household and kitchen furniture; corn, oats and rye, and 40 tons hay. Also, adjoining the one above described, a farm containing 160 acres, recently enclosed, on which is a brick house, which a trifling expense would render comfortable. The soil is excellent, and a considerable part might be easily converted into meadow—it would be sold with the other or separately. Also, a number of valuable servants, male and female. To prevent unnecessary application, he would observe, that they will only be sold to persons residing in the District or its vicinity, and not to be carried from it. The subscriber will also sell the greater part of his household furniture, which is new and handsome. For terms of all or any part of the above property, apply to NOBLET HERBERT, Esq.

There are erected on said premises, an excellent two story brick dwelling house on West street, with smoke house, stable, carriage house, and every convenience suitable for the accommodation of a respectable family. A large two story brick warehouse, corner of King and West streets, now in the occupation of Thomas Swann, Jr. and another brick warehouse, with dwelling attached, fronting on King street, occupied by George Kincaid. These warehouses are built of the best materials, not surpassed by any in town.—Two brick dwelling houses, fronting on King street, with sufficient room for the erection of other buildings, and a large lot for accommodation for families, and a large lot on West and Cameron streets, sufficiently large for the erection of fifteen respectable tenements.
This is a most desirable property for any man of fortune who wishes to improve it, or receive a good interest for his money, and offers advantages equal if not superior to any situation in the town of Alexandria.
Likewise, two frame dwelling houses, fronting on King street, adjoining the warehouse occupied by George Kincaid. This property is subject to a small ground rent of thirty dollars and forty one cents per annum.
Also, a lot of ground, in fee simple, containing ten and three quarter acres, two miles from town, on the old Leesburg road, near the property of Wm. Robinson, Esq.
This lot is beautifully situated, having a fine view of Alexandria and of the Potomac—is well taken with clover, and is capable of the highest improvement.
The above property will be sold together, or in part, and a liberal credit given to suit purchasers.
